PANAMA JACK: EVOLUTION OF THE MAN

1974 - 2024

The Original Man

The first Panama Jack® sun care paper label features the Man, classic block lettering and simple embellishments in the corners. He then was surrounded in rope and the original ribbon, creating a timeless and memorable icon.

Panama Jack

Sunset Rope Man introduces illustrative color to the artwork. This was a sought-after sereprint for tees.

The 90s

The Modern Man, cropped and super simplified, was part of the "Jack up the Fun" campaign.

Guide & Outfitter branding was introduced in 2002. The hat style and rugged apparel was a new departure.

1974

1st paper label.

Panama Jack

1984

The 80s

Spring Break Man added tropical neon colors and trendy typography.

1999

Postage Stamp Man was introduced on the 25th anniversary sun care labels.

Y2K

The time we unarchived some treasures, the Weathered Man was as a handpainted cigar label sign that was reworked to resemble a wood medallion.

First Cabin Man was part of the premium line of tanning oils in the 1970s.

Panama Jack® Environmental Optics featured the man with aviator shades in the late nineties.

Life Preserver Man

2010

2024
50 YEARS
OF SUMMER!

Sunset Man circles back to the Original Man with added color and detail. This logo has stood the test of summer time!

Woven Man was featured on sun care labels. The Panama Jack® Signature becomes more prominent.

2004

2017

The Unearthed Man revisits the woven man but with added depth and patina, while the Signature goes vertical. He was featured as a mural, on our catalog cover and other Panama Jack® Resort's collectibles.

40 Years

2014 The Rough Man is a simple, yet stylized, rendering of the Man that can be presented in any one color.
